Day 2

Chnok Tru – Kompong Chnang

- 07:00 Breakfast on board.
- 08:00 Local boats are coming along the Toum Tiou II and picking passengers for the visit of Chnok Tru: the biggest floating village on the Tonlé Sap River.
- 10:00 Passengers re-embark the Toum Tiou II. Lunch on board on the way to Kampong Chnang.
- 14:30 Arrival to Kampong Chnang.
Located some 56 miles from Phnom Penh, the town of Kampong Chnang is one of the largest fishing ports on the Tonlé Sap. Fish farming is also widely practiced in the area. The area is famous for its pottery ware, unchanged in style for centuries, which is produced in sufficient quantities to supply the entire country. And not to be overlooked are the products of the Thnot tree (sugar palm – a real national symbol) that abounds in the area: a mellow tasting, caramel-colored sugar sold in large cakes and palm wine.
- 18:00 Passengers re-embark. The Toum Tiou II drops anchor few miles away.
- 19:00 Dinner and overnight onboard.

Day 3

Kompong Tralach – Phnom Penh

- 07:45 Departure of the Toum Tiou II early in the morning. Sail to Kampong Tralach, breakfast during navigation.
- 08:30 Arrival at Kampong Tralach to visit its wonderful Vihara belonging to Wat Kampong Tralach Leu pagoda. To get to it, we cross Kampong Tralach Krom village along a small road perpendicular to the river, crossing some gorgeous stretches of emerald rice paddy as we leave the river behind.
The Vihara dates back to early last century. It was probably built on an older site, as indicated by the latérite foundations, and is home to some outstanding mural paintings. These, however, are starting to suffer from weathering. They remain one of the last survivors of cultural destruction that continues unabated due to widespread indifference.
Standing by itself in the middle of rice fields, it is a modest pagoda that receives very few visitors. Its isolation may well be its undoing, as was the case last May for Wat Tani Pagoda in the province of Kampot.
- 10:30 Passengers re-embark the Toum Tiou II. Lunch on board on the way to Phnom Penh.
- 14:00 Arrival in Phnom Penh. - Tuol Sleng Museum, old center of detention, of torture and execution between 1975 and 1979. The visit of this place is essential to understand what could be the fatal madness perpetrated by the Khmer Rouges. Visit Russian market after museum.
- 17:00 Return to the boat.
- 19:00 Local group performs on board traditional "APSARA" show for 45 minutes. Dinner onboard.

Floating fish farms have sprung up everywhere. Bamboo fish drying racks are set up a meter above the water's surface. The burgeoning downtown area features some charmingly rustic colonial buildings, squeezed in by the marketplace - the colorful, vibrant heart of the city. As always, these busy parts of town, despite their sometimes strong odors, offer wonderful photo opportunities...

It provides a glimpse of the delta where a few colonial houses still remain, including the "Chinaman's house" (from Duras' novel "The Lover", also made into a movie).
- 12:00 Return to the boat, for lunch. Departure for Vinh Long.
- 14:30 Arrival at Vinh Long, local boats pick up passengers for visiting a brick and pottery factory, the Binh Hoa Phuoc Islet Nursery of Fruit Trees as well a typical house and a show room of traditional farming tools. Vinh Long, which translates as "Majestic Dragon", is right in the middle of the delta, between two arms of the Mekong. The soil of Vinh Long is enriched by silt deposits, making it ideal for growing mandarins and other citrus fruits. Life is organized around the water. Houses on stilts, hawkers in boats, hundreds of small craft crisscross in all directions. The hospitality of the locals makes it a tourist destination par excellence.
